Troy Hosts Fine Dining Restaurant Week, August 22-27
Sixteen Restaurants offer summer specials and assist Habitat for Humanity

Troy, Mich. August 5, 2010—Sixteen of Troy’s finest dining establishments will welcome diners to the summer edition of Troy Restaurant Week (TRW), August 22-27. Sponsored in partnership with the Troy Chamber of Commerce, the week-long dining celebration will feature 3-course lunch specials for $15 per person and 3-course dinner specials for $30 person, Sunday-Friday at participating restaurants. The summer line up of restaurants includes:

Benihana
BRIO Tuscan Grille
Charley’s Crab
Crumpets Restaurant
Franco’s Cafe
Kona Grill
Kruse & Muer on Wilshire
Loccino Italian Grill & Bar

McCormick & Schmick’s Seafood
Mon Jin Lau
Morton’s The Steakhouse
Ocean Prime
Ruth’s Chris Steak House
The Capital Grille
The Melting Pot of Troy
Tre Monti Ristorante

“Our event last spring filled our fine dining restaurants and gave customers amazing meals at very affordable prices,” said Michele Hodges, Troy Chamber president. “This summer will be no exception! I encourage everyone to come to Troy and taste their way through our city.”

For more information, go to www.troyrestaurantweek.com. The site lists all of the participating restaurants, featured menus, directions and reservation information. There is also information about the charity element built in to this summer’s Troy Restaurant Week.

Habitat for Humanity of Oakland County has been named the community partner of TRW, August 2010!

“We are thrilled to partner with this summer’s Troy Restaurant Week,” said Brad Irwin, director of partnerships for Habitat for Humanity Oakland County. “It’s an ideal opportunity for those in the community to experience a rare dining event, while helping to support our mission of eliminating poverty and homelessness in Oakland County.”

To support Habitat for Humanity of Oakland County, diners who make a donation (minimum of $5 each) will receive a Habitat for Humanity gold hammer lapel pin. The funds raised will help build and renovate houses for local families in need. Diners can also make donations online anytime at www.habitatoakland.org.

As an added bonus, restaurant patrons who have purchased pins will be able to take advantage of “Hammer Home the Savings,” August 28-September 3 (the week after TRW). By showing their pins at participating Troy Chamber member businesses during this time period, customers will receive a special discount/offer that is only available to those with the hammer pins. Visit the Hammer Home the Savings page of www.troyrestaurantweek.com.
